There was a class called 3/4C
They learned fast like a busy bee.
They can never take a break,
Learning is a piece of cake!
There enormous brains are the key!

NEWS NEWS NEWS

Good morning TPPS families

Thank you very much for continuing to follow the COVID-safe guidelines that are in place in NSW regional areas. While we do not have any COVID cases in our area, the restrictions we have in place will make sure we are safe if this should happen.

- Congratulations to our TPPS debating team – Imogen Patterson, Mikayla Blake, Marley Gow and Claire Bye - and their coach Jenni Fraser. They were successful yesterday, winning all four online debates to become zone champions! An amazing effort for these young ladies. They now go on to debate in the regional final. We are very proud of them!
- Today we are recognising and celebrating NAIDOC Children's Day. There are a series of activities, games and learning sessions set up for students in mixed K-6 groups to participate in. Thank you to the staff involved in getting this organised and those involved in running the activities with their student leaders!
- If your child has lost any jumpers or coats, please ask them to look near their bag hooks and in the lost clothing cupboard. There are many jumpers and jackets there without names.

Safety message – Please talk with your children about being safe when leaving school to go home. Children crossing roads have caused a few frightening moments over the last week so please remind them to be careful when they are crossing busy roads around our school.

Thank you!
Have a great week.

Principal

2021 BOOK WEEK CHARACTER PARADE

SAVE THE DATE!

Wednesday 25/8/21 - Week 7

our Book Week Parade will take place.

So, it's time to start thinking about your child's costume. Remember! costumes can be made from many bits and pieces around the house and don't have to cost a fortune.

Unfortunately, we are unable have parents and family members at this exciting event this year, but we promise to take many happy snaps for everyone to remember this great day.

The Canteen will provide a yummy special lunch for the day which will be advertised in the newsletter for those wanting to order.
